

Fig 1.—Potassium and sodium balance in three nonedematous patients receiving 100 mg/day of hydrochlorothiazide. Data are presented for each patient as average balance per day during three- or four-day period. Open bars for sodium excretion are masked by shaded bars during control period.